

RYAN HUNTER-REAY
2014 INDIANAPOLIS 500 CHAMPION
2012 INDYCAR SERIES CHAMPION
DRIVER OF THE No. 28 DHL HONDA

BEHIND THE WHEEL

FOLLOW THE LEADER

Ryan Hunter-Reay is the most successful American driver currently participating in open-wheel competition, with more race wins than any other active American IndyCar driver.

HOT-SHOT ROOKIE

Hunter-Reay won the IndyCar Series Rookie of the Year award in 2007, despite only competing in six of the 17 events. In 2008, RHR took home Indy 500 Rookie of the Year honors after a sixth-place finish.

WELCOME TO THE TEAM

RHR signed to drive for Andretti Autosport in January 2010 and promptly won the prestigious Long Beach Grand Prix, the fourth race of his first season with the team, capturing Andretti Autosport's first victory under the sole ownership of racing legend Michael Andretti.

2018 RECAP

Hunter-Reay posted Wins at the Chevrolet Detroit Grand Prix and the Grand Prix of Sonoma where Ryan dominated by starting from the pole and leading 80 of the 85 laps. He finished 4th in the Championship with 2 wins, 7 Podiums, 2 Fastest Race Laps, and 1 Pole.

AMERICAN TRADITION

RHR is the 2014 Indianapolis 500 Champion, the first American to win the title since 2006

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

RENAISSANCE MAN

RHR is the only driver ever to record wins in IndyCar, CART, Champ Car, ALMS and Grand-Am

2007 Verizon IndyCar Series, and 2008 Indianapolis 500 Rookie of the Year

2014 Indianapolis 500 Champion

2012 IndyCar Series Champion

Two-time ESPYs Best Driver Winner

Five-time Race of Champions Invitee

Holds 18 career victories and seven pole positions in open-wheel competition

Has completed more than 87% of his open-wheel laps, and running at the finish in more than 75% of his open-wheel competition starts

Has led more than 1,100 laps in his open-wheel career

Has recorded at least one victory for every IndyCar team he has driven a full year for, including fourteen for Andretti Autosport

UNDER THE HELMET

VICTORY CIRCLE

The Hunter-Reay family with the Borg Warner Trophy following Ryan's Indianapolis 500 victory. The trophy bears the likeness of every Indy 500 winner dating back to the race's first running in 1911.

BORN

December 17, 1980 in Dallas, TX

LIVES

Ft. Lauderdale, Florida

FAMILY

Beccy (wife), three Son's Ryden (5), Rocsen (3) and Rhodes (2)

ONLINE

RyanRacing.com

facebook.com/RyanHunter-Reay

RyanHunterReay

@RyanHunterReay

UNDER THE HELMET

RACING FOR CANCER

RHR co-founded Racing For Cancer in 2010 following his mother's passing.

Their mission statement is, "simply, to help beat cancer!"

RacingForCancer.org

PHILANTHROPIST

RHR proudly carries the Number 28 on his car to show his commitment to helping the 28 MILLION people fighting cancer worldwide

BEACH BUM

An avid scuba diver, surfer and sport fisherman, RHR can often be found on the water when not at a racetrack

HOMETOWN FAN

The South Florida resident is a fan of both the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Heat and takes in games at every opportunity

SIT. STAY.

The Hunter-Reay household is home to two Golden Retrievers: Captain and Charlie

WANT TO KNOW MORE?

PLEASE CONTACT

RYANN RIGSBY

ryann.rigsby@andrettiautosport.com

Office 317.872.2700 x 275

Mobile 610.909.7312